Opening Prayer:

Heavenly Father,

Today we will see the example of our apostle on how to handle personal attacks that are made against us. May our attitude and response not be that of our flesh, or of the world, but may we rise above and truly present ourselves as a living sacrifice. We pray to be changed by the doctrine which we study today, and therefore, we will respond to what we learn by putting it into practice in our lives so that the life of the Lord Jesus may be manifested in us. Amen.
